| | | fill; equi ition | On July 19, 1967, the contractor replaced the processor portion of PP 1001. On August 4, 1967, IAS indicated that this unit had success-ly completed their testing. The contractor has thus delivered all pigment required under the contract. He still has to provide an addicated 90days of free maintenance on each unit beginning on the day of a complete. However, this maintenance will be handled through IAS. | | | | | | | | | | |
